

Alternative Education

The Harrison County School District provides an alternative setting for students who need a special environment in order to be successful. The Harrison County Alternative School offers students in grades seven through twelve an opportunity to continue their learning and to be successful at a critical time in their academic progress. As a result of the small class sizes, one-on-one instruction, and coping-skills instruction, many students demonstrate academic success following their attendance for a short time at the Alternative School.