

Behavior Support Team

Behavior Support Teams are in place at each school to assist teachers with methods and intervention strategies for students exhibiting aberrant behavior. This team works closely with parents, social workers, school nurses, and community services to assist teachers and their students who exhibit a need for assistance.